

Turn It Around: Meeting A Miracle Halfway

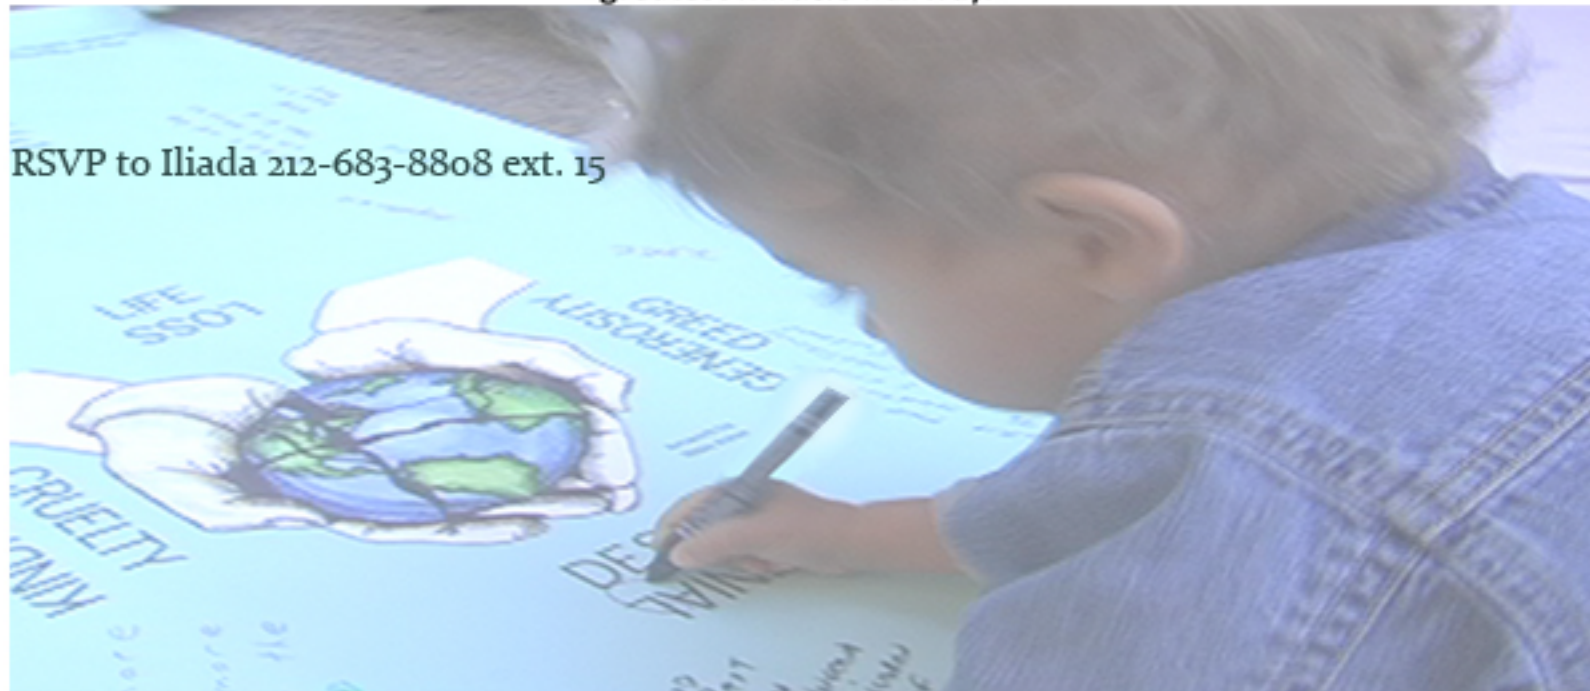

A workshop/fundraiser with author, teacher, Julia Indichova

Join us for this one hour workshop honoring the Turn It Around Peace Project, initiated by Julia Indichova

February 1st, 2011, at 6:00pm

Cliff Young Ltd., 200 Lexington Avenue Suite 505

The workshop is sponsored by Leslie Young, owner and president of Cliff Young Ltd., an interior design and furniture showroom in the NY Design Center. Leslie is deeply grateful to Julia for guiding her own spiritual "Turn-It-Around" project and supporting her in meeting her greatest miracle halfway.

RSVP to Iliada 212-683-8808 ext. 15

Many of us are aware of the hurt, tender voices in our hearts that somehow never received the attention they needed. Over the years those voices become abandoned orphans within us that cause broken relationships, or keep us stuck in jobs that offer little fulfillment.

Similarly, our collective societal orphans seek expression through ceaseless unleashing of violence and suffering.

In the last decade and a half author, teacher, Julia Indichova has supported thousands of women and men in turning the painful aspects of their lives into a source of strength and creativity. As we experience our ability to parent the fragile aspects of our own nature, the orphans crouching in a corner of our hearts grow into visionary adults giving birth to ideas, books, businesses and countless creative endeavors.

Bio: Julia Indichova is the author of Inconceivable and The Fertile Female, and the founder of fertilheartedhuman.org and fertilheart.com. Her work has been featured on the The Oprah Winfrey Show, Good Morning America, Oxygen, NPR's 51%, in Natural Health, San Francisco Chronicle, Health magazine, People magazine, Health magazine, USA Weekend, and other outlets.